INDUSTRIALS INNOVATOR TO PRODUCE AND MARKET SUPERABSORBENTS

Archer Daniels Midland Company (ADM) has added to its family a range of innovative, bio-based superabsorbents made from renewable resources.

A pioneer in the industrials, agriculture, nutrition, and food markets, ADM specializes in deriving high-performance materials from nature's resources. This makes these natural superabsorbent polymers (SAPs) a perfect fit for the ADM family.

THE PRODUCT LINE

With the acquisition of the Canadian company Lysac along with its unique product portfolio, ADM now features a range of natural, versatile absorbent polymers and functional additives that perform in many diverse applications.

KEY BENEFITS OF THE ADM FAMILY

- Industrials innovator
- Focused on bio-based product development
- Extensive technical resources
- Global customer-focused R&D teams
- Integrated supply chain

These hypoallergenic, biodegradable alternatives to petroleum-based SAPs offer effective absorbency and moisture retention in baby diaper, adult incontinence, and feminine hygiene applications.

LEADING BIO-BASED INDUSTRIAL PORTFOLIO

For customers in industries worldwide, ADM provides naturally derived, non-petroleum based ingredients that excel in a wide range of applications. Among our portfolio you'll find PHA polymers for biodegradable plastics, coalescents for paints and coatings, emulsifiers and thickeners for cosmetics and personal care, starches for construction and packaging, oils for printing and candlemaking, and ethanol for fuel and industrial uses.

GLOBAL R&D RESOURCES

Customers in every corner of the globe benefit from ADM's comprehensive global research-and-development network, as well as our integrated supply chain, from farmer to manufacturer to consumer.

With broad industrials and personal care experience and a wealth of starch expertise, researchers worldwide work closely with customers throughout the disposable personal hygiene market to provide formulation and application support.

For customers around the world, ADM draws on its resources—its people, products, and market perspective—to help them meet today's consumer demands and envision tomorrow's needs.
