

Our value-added services can help you overcome a range of daily challenges.

When you partner with ADM you gain access to the largest portfolio of oils in the industry, unmatched technical ingenuity, and a vertically integrated supply chain connecting you from field to final product. Our formulation expertise delivers exacting solutions to meet your most demanding application, while our value added services help you manage every day challenges, from reducing risk and disruptions to meeting your sustainability goals, and driving efficiencies.

As your partner in oils we add value every step of the way.

Partnering with farmers, our vertically integrated supply chain connects fields to our network of global origination assets.

World-class crushing and refining facilities produce high quality, consistent products.

J · · · J · · · · · · · · · ·

Our formulation expertise helps create products that delight consumers.

Dedicated oils transportation resources move oils from refining to customers in reliable and efficient ways.

Technical support

is there to help you troubleshoot challenges or develop new ideas to drive efficiencies.

Our customer care team for oils is readily available to help with orders or any questions that may arise.

Partner with ADM today.

Let us show you how we can provide you with much more than products and solutions.

800-637-5866 | oils@adm.com